

Venue

E. U. Enfermería Universidad Alicante
Campus Universitario San Vicente del Raspeig
03690 San Vicente del Raspeig (Alicante)

Registrations

Early registration (workshop included) (before 1 sept)	260 €
Normal registration (workshop not included)	260 €
Students, interns, low income countries	190 €
Workshop	40 €

Registration fee includes attendance to the conference, material and documents, coffees and meals during the days of the conference. It does not include travel and/or accommodation.

There will be a kindergarden available if requested before October 20th 2009.

Handicaped access will be available if requested before October 20th 2009.

There will be simultaneous translation at the conference. Papers may be presented both in Spanish and English.

Secretariát

Teresa Moreno Casbas
Unit for Coordination and Development of Nursing Research Investén-isciii
Institute of Health Carlos III
C/Sinesio Delgado, 6. Pabellón 6
28029 Madrid (Spain)
Tel: +34918222546/2536/2547
Fax: +34913877897
E-mail: investen@isciii.es
www.isciii.es/investen

13th International Nursing Research Conference

Alicante, Spain November 11-13 2009

Deadline for abstract submission: June 3rd 2009

www.isciii.es/investen

Preliminary programme

Wednesday November 11th

- 9:00 Registration
- 10:00 Workshops
- 17:00 Opening Conference. "Innovation and evidence in chronic diseases management". Dr. Rafael Bengoa.
- 18:00 Concurrent sessions

Thursday November 12th

- 9:00 Plenary session. "Mental healthcare"
- 11:00 Coffee
- 11:30 Concurrent sessions
- 13:15 Lunch
- 15:00 Concurrent sessions
- 18:00 Coffee and poster defence

Friday November 13th

- 9:00 Concurrent sessions
- 11:00 Coffee
- 11:30 Concurrent sessions
- 13:15 Lunch
- 15:00 Concurrent sessions
- 16:30 Closing conference. "Leadership in patient care. The Role of Nursing and Nurses in developing Evidence Practice". Theresa Fyffe.

Speakers

Theresa Fyffe

RCN Scotland Director. From 2000 to 2007, she has been Nursing Officer at the Scottish Executive Health Department (SEHD), having responsibility for research, quality, safe and effective care, clinical leadership, practice development, acute services and strategy development.

Dr. Rafael Bengoa

Director of the Observatory Kroniker, professor-collaborator of ESADE Business School and McGill University, and ex-director of Health Systems in the WHO.

Workshops

6 workshops or seminars on research methodology will take place during the first day of the conference.

Abstracts submission

Abstracts for the 13th International Nursing Research Conference must relate to the following themes:

Midwifery and women health
Child/adolescent health
Woman health care
Critical care
End-of-life/palliative care
Ageing and health
Cancer
Chronic illness
Mental health
VIH/AIDS and infectious diseases
Nursing and genetics
Health and immigration
Community/home/public health
Health promotion
Violence and abuse of woman and children. Implication of nursing
Ethical dilemmas and conflicts
Nursing management
Nursing education

Health application of new technologies
research methodology
Evidence-based practice and research utilisation
Outcomes measurement

Types of presentations:

1. Poster presentation
2. Oral presentation
3. Student's corner

Submission forms detailing guidelines may be found at www.iscii.es/investen

Submissions will be rated on the following:

- Overall quality
- Contribution to scholarship or clinical practice
- Relevance to conference themes

Deadline for submission of abstracts is

June 3rd 2009 (20:00 GMT)

The abstracts accepted will be published in the abstract's book edited by the Organisation. The book will be registered by ISBN.